

tinker v. de moines independent school district (1969)

“it can hardly be argued that either students or teachers shed their constitutional rights to freedom of speech or expression at the schoolhouse gate.”

take the yellow pill:
you have the right
to speak here.