

in order for student behavior to constitute actionable “hostile environment” harassment it must be:

“unwelcome, discriminatory on the basis of gender or another protected status,” and “so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it can be said to deprive the victim(s) of access to the educational opportunities or benefits provided by the school.”

take the yellow pill:

harassment is not protected by the first amendment.

you cannot be censored or punished for isolated speech that others find unpleasant. harassment is more serious.