

umass dartmouth guidelines for political activities (2016)

“members of the university community and all groups or individuals coming on the campus for the specific purpose of speaking or demonstrating must be sponsored by a university-recognized organization, group, or department.”

take the yellow pill:
are students allowed to speak here without seeking university permission?

