

umass dartmouth public forum of university facilities (2010)

“public forum uses are limited to appropriate public forum spaces, which do not include, among other locations, faculty and administrative offices, classrooms and other instructional facilities and residential facilities.”

take the yellow pill:
your freedom to speak
at umass dartmouth
does not extend to:
classrooms
faculty offices
residence halls.