

healy v. james (1972)

“the college,
acting here as the
instrumentality of
the state, may not
restrict speech or
association simply
because it finds the
views expressed by
any group to be
abhorrent.”

take the yellow pill:
your university may not
deny your expression or assembly because they disagree with your views.

but you should speak
and assemble peacefully.